

New Year's Eve 2011

Goodwood House

Goodwood House New Year's Eve celebration with overnight accommodation at the Goodwood Hotel

Goodwood House, the ancestral home of the Dukes of Richmond and Gordon houses a wonderful art collection set against rich Regency interiors. The magnificent State Apartments are filled with treasures, including two celebrated paintings of London by Canaletto and three paintings by George Stubbs of sporting activities on the Estate.

This New Year's Eve will see an unique opportunity as the Earl and Countess of March open Goodwood House to celebrate the New Year. Goodwood House has been home to family parties for over 200 years.

This New Year, create magical memories with friends and family.

Once you have checked into The Goodwood Hotel, you have time to prepare before the black tie evening ahead. A welcome drinks reception will be held prior to your transfer to Goodwood House. You will be welcomed to Goodwood House with flickering candle light and fires lit in the State Rooms and you are encouraged to wander among the magnificent State Apartments with a glass of wine and a selection of canapés. Our team will be on hand to provide insight into the art collection housed in Goodwood House.

You will be seated, by our butlers, in the wonderful Regency Ballroom, which has been the scene of many glittering balls, to enjoy a carefully prepared four course menu using Goodwood Estate reared produce in truly mouthwatering dishes with accompanying wine.

After dinner, relax with coffee and the entertainment will begin. The band, "Cover Story", who have performed with some of the biggest names in popular music will perform, whilst guests enjoy dancing, or try your hand at the casino in the Yellow Drawing Room.

As the evening closes, you will take away wonderful memories of a magical evening spent in the company of those you most care about.

Return to The Goodwood Hotel after the party for a good night's sleep. The following morning enjoy a relaxed brunch before heading home.

Be one of the first to experience the ultimate house party at Goodwood House this New Year's Eve.

With limited places available at this unique event, please book early to avoid disappointment.
